ANGIE SELLERS

DALLAS, TX

Angie Sellers is a former Disney World dancer and the co-owner of Two4One Productions. She is also a director and choreographer for many award-winning entertainment companies that produce shows for multiple theme parks, touring shows, and corporate events across the country and abroad. She was awarded the distinguished "Spotlight Award" as Creative Director of the Year. Throughout her career, she has directed, choreographed, and performed for professional basketball dance teams, corporate events for major companies, and television specials including NFL halftime shows. She choreographed Oklahoma's television special, "Raising Oklahoma" which featured such artists as Vince Gill and Amy Grant and worked with Darci Lynne, the winner of America's Got Talent. She choreographed the touring production of "The World's Greatest Magic", the International Tour of "World of Magic". She is honored to have co-produced and choreographed a live televised special that won an EMMY Award for "Best Special Event". Angie has created a variety of specialty shows that are in high demand nationally, including "Industrial Movement", "The Amazing Chinese Acrobats", "Circo Magnifico", and the Christmas Production, "The Best Time of the Year".

MARIA POMERLEAU

MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Maria Pomerleau began her dancing career in Des Moines, Iowa with Betty Hill Dance Studios. As a teen, she began dancing professionally, appearing in live shows and commercials, most notably on Disneyland's stages. Maria also was found on the competitive dance stage as an award-winning soloist and team member. As a young adult, her greater passion was in teaching and guest choreographing for competitive dance studios and high school dance teams in the Midwest. For several years, Maria instructed and choreographed for Betty Hill Dance Studios and Woodbury Dance Center prior to establishing her studio within the Twin Cities. Under Maria's direction, Lake Area Dance Center achieved awards including National Title Winners, National Group Champions, and Top Studio of the Year. Outside of dance studio ownership and education, Maria earned degrees in Chemical Engineering and French, as well as a Masters in Business Administration. With a technical prowess, a hard-working nature, and an appreciation for entertainment, Maria enjoys performers of all ages, styles, and proficiencies.

SAVANNAH ENOCH

OSWEGO, IL

Savannah Enoch is a dancer and choreographer from the Chicagoland area. She has known from a very young age that dance and the performing arts are her passion. Savannah started in a pre-professional dance company at the age of nine and has been trained in a variety of styles including jazz, contemporary, lyrical, ballet, hip hop, acrobatics, tap, modern, musical theater, advanced partnering, and ballroom. After graduating high school, she continued her training at the prestigious Theater Arts Preparatory School (TAPS) in Las Vegas, Nevada. There, she was taught by top industry professionals and choreographers from Los Angeles, New York City, and Las Vegas. Savannah has performed in multiple projects from theater to film. She has danced for Holland America Line Cruise ships, American Music Theatre, The Palace Theatre, Hershey Park, RWS Entertainment Group, "Show Dogs" (film), 20th Century Fox, McDonald's Thanksgiving Day Parade, and many more. As a choreographer and teacher, Savannah has become well-renowned at a very young age. She is a faculty member of Chicago Dance Connection and the jazz director at Storm Dance Alliance Academy of Dance and the Arts. She has received many honors for her work in the competition circuit, including multiple IDA nominations. She strives to continuously grow and learn as a dancer, teacher, and choreographer. Over the years, she has learned that she truly loves to teach and inspire young artists. Savannah hopes to continue to share her passion for the arts and ignite the future generation of performers.
